Christ Human Library (CHL) organized the 5th Chapter of Christ Human Library at Christ Campus, Rajkot, on September 17, 2024. The event, titled "Timeless Voices: The Alumni Chapter," was dedicated to honoring Christ Alumni as the institution's brand ambassadors.

Twelve distinguished alumni were invited to participate as "Human Books," with Mrs. Neha Parekh, a renowned YouTuber and creator of the popular Gujarati cooking channel "Neha's Cookbook," serving as the main book. A Christ alumna from the 2005 batch, she shared her inspiring journey as a YouTube creator.

The event also included an investiture ceremony for two additional students from the core committee members. Over 700 readers attended the main function, with 11 parallel sessions conducted simultaneously. Each session featured an alumni speaker who shared their personal experiences as a Human Book.

Dr. Father Jomon Thommana, Director of Christ College Campus, expressed his gratitude to all the Human Books and congratulated the staff for successfully hosting the event and managing the 12 parallel sessions.
